editor's note

ONE OF OUR LOCAL BUILDERS TOLD ME RECENTLY

that his wee daughter asked him if Christmas will happen this year. The sweet innocence of children.

It is for our children and for our families that our holiday traditions must continue. We need the consistency of the cherished past and the repetition of these precious moments with loved ones to ground us and to celebrate our safe, warm places – at home.

For me, I'll spend Christmas with my son Jay, his beautiful partner Danielle and my granddog Zephyr. Choosing fun and thoughtful stocking stuffers is our favourite tradition and of course there's Mom's famous prime rib roast with "the best gravy in the world!"

I know you'll be charmed and inspired to amp up your own festive décor when you read about our two holiday homes. Both were photographed a year ago. One was on the Christmas JOY Home Tour 2019 featuring a winter wonderland theme and the other features a more modern take on holiday decorating and entertaining in a Cambridge condo setting.

Local design talent abounds in our region with two stories about recent renovation transformations that will stir your décor muse. A bright beachy makeover for empty nesters and a stylish family-friendly reno show how hiring a designer can transform your home into the oasis of your dreams.

In the Spotlights you'll find a mecca of flooring choices, and the season's warmest paint colours and tiles at Cover-Ups Carpet and Flooring. We also focus on N-Hance Wood Refinishing – the place to go to refresh your kitchen cabinetry without demolishing the entire kitchen.

It's been an extraordinary year. Thank you for reading OUR HOMES and for your thoughtful feedback while we were all working from a distance to showcase the beautiful homes of Wellington and Waterloo regions.

Wishing you and your families a safe and healthy transition to winter and a joyful holiday season!

HOME BUILDING & RENOVATION

PUT YOUR MONEY WHERE IT COUNTS

Every renovation or new build conversation includes the phrases return on investment (ROI) and resale value. When you design to live well and beautifully, ROI and resale value are a given.

Here are our top tips to help you put your money where it counts:

WHERE TO SAVE

You can find major savings in areas and on products that can give you ROI or that wow factor. Consider these:

TILE AND FLOORING

Technological advancements provide many beautiful and economical options that will transform any tiled wall or floor into eye candy. Porcelain tiles that look like stone are indistinguishable from the real thing – and are easier to clean and maintain.

Wood floors come in many grades and price points to maintain an overall look. Many rooms will be covered with area rugs, so oftentimes an expensive floor isn't necessary.

GENERAL LIGHTING

Light fixtures such as pot lights or surface-mounted lights can be modestly priced and distributed throughout the house.

WHERE TO SPLURGE

Now that you've saved some money – where can you splurge and have some fun?

PROFESSIONALS ARE WORTH THEIR FEE

Hire legitimate and registered professionals. They are experts at planning to make life simpler, relieve stress and maneuver through the endless amounts of information, building code requirements and choices. Professionals can help you avoid costly mistakes, which could pay their fees ten times over. Designers and architects add value to your home and to your lifestyle.

QUARTZ COUNTERS

A quartz counter is antimicrobial, available in a wide range of styles and cleans up easily for your health and peace of mind.

STATEMENT LIGHTING

Whether you eat at a kitchen island or dining room table, the fixtures featured in each area should make a statement. After all, they serve as a focal point where togetherness happens.

In the bathroom, good lighting is essential to make you look good. Consider wet-rated LED chandeliers, pendants and wall sconces.

DIMMERS

Adding a dimmer in every room of the house helps create a signature mood in each space.

CUSTOM CABINETS

Quality custom cabinets that look like furniture at the entry, kitchen and bathroom add a touch of luxury. Smart storage design will buy you time as you grab and go throughout your day. Remember to add beautiful hardware – the jewelry of any cabinet.

FAUCETS AND SHOWERHEADS

Faucets and showerheads see high use throughout the day, and cheap fixtures tend to leak or loosen with finishes often flaking off over time. Splurge and buy the best you can afford.

LUXURY SHOWERS

The trend is to eliminate the tub and invest in a roomy walk-in shower. You can put your budget toward a frameless glass shower that cleans up easily, including a non-white grout.

WINDOWS IN KEY SIGHTLINES

Windows can be the soul of your home, so dress up those you see first when entering. Window treatments can soften and enhance, adding that luxurious whisper to your space.

Living well and living beautifully will not only enhance your home's resale value, it will enhance your soul. And that's worth all the money in the world. OH

Client Testimonial

"We checked two references and after seeing their kitchens, we were more than impressed with the superior quality of work by Kitchen Revival. We had no hesitancy asking them to do our kitchen and couldn't be happier with the results. It's like having a new kitchen! We wanted to paint rather than replace the kitchen doors but were concerned about the oak grain showing through white. We didn't need to worry, the effect is beautiful! We highly recommend Phil and Kitchen Revival!"

ULTIMATE CAESAR

BLOODY CAESARS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN A FAVOURITE IN CANADIAN HOUSEHOLDS. UPGRADE THIS CLASSIC WITH A SEASONING PRE-MIX AND DELICIOUS GARNISHES.

RECIPE AND PHOTOGRAPHY
JENELLE MCCULLOCH

CAESAR PRE-MIX

- 1 5.5 oz. can tomato paste
- ½ cup Worcestershire sauce
- ½ cup soy sauce
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- 1 tsp onion powder
- ½ tsp oregano
- 1 Tbsp brown sugar
- 1 tsp hot sauce, or to taste

Mix all ingredients together.

Add 1 or 2 ounces of this spicy pre-mix to a glass with 1 ½ ounces of vodka, then fill the glass with purchased Caesar mix. Or skip the vodka for a virgin Caesar.

Garnish with a deviled egg or fried pickle and chunk of blue cheese.

CAESAR GARNISH

DEEP-FRIED PICKLES + BLUE CHEESE

- 6 baby dill pickles
- 1 egg
- ½ cup all-purpose flour
- ½ cup almond flour
- ½ tsp paprika
- ¼ tsp salt
- ¼ tsp black pepper
- Chunks of blue cheese

In three separate bowls prepare the breading assembly. In the first, whisk an egg. Place flour in a second and mix together almond flour and spices in the third.

Dip pickles in the plain flour first, then egg mixture and finally coat with almond flour mixture.

Heat deep-frying oil in a pan or deep fryer to 375°F. Fry pickles until golden.

Place on paper napkin to cool.

Serve on a skewer with a chunk of blue cheese.

DEVILED EGGS

- 6 eggs
- 1 Tbsp mayonnaise
- ½ tsp prepared mustard
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- Paprika, to garnish

Place eggs in a pot filled with water. Bring water to a boil over medium heat, then remove from heat and cover with lid for 11 minutes.

Remove eggs from pot and place in a bowl of ice water to halt cooking.

Once cool, break the shells and peel each egg.

Cut eggs in half and remove yolks into a bowl.

Add mayonnaise, mustard, salt and pepper and mix until combined.

Add a scoop of yolk mixture to each egg white and sprinkle with paprika.

Serve on a skewer. OH

YOUR HOME, YOUR CASTLE

HOW TO BRING YOURSELF INTO YOUR INTERIORS

STORY EUGENIA TRIANDOS AND KORINA KHAMIS
PHOTOGRAPHY DREW HADLEY

What makes a house feel like home? Every great interior begins with its inhabitant. We believe the personality needs to live within the home's overall design and aesthetic. Make your house feel like home, inspired by you!

THE BIG PURGE

If you feel like your home doesn't represent you, it's time to purge. Discard everything that does not bring you happiness. It's so easy to hold onto items you don't like, simply because you're used to having them around. This act alone will eliminate everything in your home that does not represent you. Once you've removed all the hollow stuff you can start to fill your home with meaningful mementos and things that inspire you.

SHOW YOURSELF

You have likely accumulated a highly personal collection or two that says a lot about what brings you happiness. Putting these items on display will not only make your home feel more like you, but will provide comfort and exude your personality into the space. Added bonus: These are great conversation-starters.

PRO TIP: Avoid clutter by only displaying selections from your collections, instead of the entire set. Display books on shelves as you would showcase art. Books fill gaps nicely, and their artistic covers can be featured in place of artwork. Continued on page 46

Northridge HOMES

Building Lifestyles.

We Build Every Home
As If It Were Our Own

design ideas

CREATE COMFORT

Home is about achieving a heightened level of efficiency, comfort and pleasure. These days, we are experiencing our homes in a new way – as a refuge from the world. Regardless of what’s happening outside, our interiors should always be the greatest escape of all, filled with things we love and tailored to the way we live. This may mean investing in that really beautiful but equally expensive sofa if you enjoy lounging in front of the television every evening, or finally getting around to setting up that dedicated home office that inspires you, instead of working from the kitchen table.

Comfort can be created with some simple considerations like lighting and ambience. Adding candles, fresh florals and throws draped over the sofa and chairs are some of the easiest and most impactful ways to boost your home’s comfort level.

BE ADAPTIVE

The world is changing, and our homes have to keep up. Adaptation starts with being open to change and may take place as a slow build (think technology through the decades) or suddenly. We grow, and as our circumstances change, our personal style, collectables and lifestyles follow suit. Your home may have represented your past self, but it’s possible and very normal to change over time. When you feel like your current décor has run its course, it’s time to restart the decorating process and find new ways to bring the new you into your home.

There’s a good reason that custom continues to be the biggest interior trend, year in and year out. Cookie-cutter fads come and go. Look within for inspiration that stands the test of time. An open mind and a good design team can make your home truly yours – and isn’t that what great design is all about? OH

STORY MERRILYN PATTERSON
PHOTOGRAPHY JASON HARTOG

Designer Julia Correia wanted her living space to suit her style, express her personality, engage her senses and make her happy to be home. LEFT: Julia in her pretty and personalized home office. OPPOSITE: Details like pattern, colour and texture are repeated to create a cohesive flow in the great room.

BBORN IN PORTUGAL, JULIA'S LOVE OF DESIGN was influenced by elaborate churches, magnificent castles, aged cobblestone paths and blue-and-white tiled facades. In her new home, her goal was to create a space where she could be herself with no compromises. Her home is unabashedly pretty and feminine.

Blue-and-white is a common element in Portuguese facades and blue is, not surprisingly, Julia's favourite colour. Blended with a love of chinoiserie, these themes are repeated throughout her home.

Bold, whimsical nature scenes with pavilions, birds and rambling floral motifs are popular in the chinoiserie style. Birds and lush florals ramble and play on cherry blossom wallpaper in Julia's powder room and in accent pieces elsewhere. Fretwork – carved ornamental designs – show up in furniture and on the custom-designed back panels of the kitchen island. Graphic and geometric patterns make a show in mirrors and artwork. Many of the décor pieces in the home are vintage and you can find Julia shopping for unique pieces at antique markets, secondhand stores and just about anywhere that looks like they may have interesting pieces.

BELOW: A marble backsplash in a brick pattern is a timeless and luxe backdrop for this stylish kitchen. RIGHT: Julia's living room gallery wall is a curated collection of her favourite art. The room's furnishings include pieces with gold accents, textural fabrics and a cowhide rug. A collection of blue-and-white ceramics adds sophistication to the room.

“NO ROOM IS EVER FINISHED WITHOUT WINDOW TREATMENTS.”

When Julia bought the house, the kitchen was blocked off from the rest of the house and not at all functional. She took down the walls and opened the space. A central island was installed to allow better flow and sight lines. She chose a durable quartz countertop that mimics marble from Chervin Kitchen & Bath. Curated vignettes of chinoiserie porcelain vases, ginger jars and blue-and-white tableware, accented with sparkling crystal and natural floral displays add Julia's warm personality to the space. Continued on page 52

Julia’s design aesthetic dictates that “No room is ever finished without window treatments.” She advises addressing the functionality of a room first, then adding personality and softness with fabric. In the open-concept kitchen/living space, she softened the space with cream linen curtains by It’s Curtains For You, splurging on a blue geometric trim by Mary MacDonald, featuring the Greek key motif.

The furniture and décor in Julia’s home are mainly vintage or custom. “I like to have unique pieces that you won’t find anywhere else,” she says. In some cases she has furniture professionally painted and sometimes she refreshes them herself. She painted a set of vintage chairs using Annie Sloan chalk paint from Kathie Jordan Design. Accent chairs were reupholstered by Acadian Upholstery and case goods were professionally sprayed by Riley Painting Corp. Julia says she gravitates to “timeless designs and craftsmanship from years gone by.” She’s at home and in her element now with all of the things she loves surrounding her. OH

Here are her tips on how you can make this bright, relaxed style your own:

THE LOOK: Bright, breezy and carefree.

THE HOMEOWNERS: Empty nesters with grandchildren.

THE FEEL: Comfortable, relaxed and practical.

JULIA'S TIPS:

1. Function first.
2. Add personality.
3. Make it pretty!

FUNCTION FIRST

- Kitchens and bathrooms must be functional with great storage and ample work surfaces.
- An unobstructed kitchen island gives space to spread out and also allows for attractive displays.
- Forego the kitchen table – casual meals can be taken at the island.
- Use natural materials for countertops – quartzite can imitate marble.
- A well-appointed dining room can accommodate large gatherings and more formal meals.
- Slipcovered sofas provide comfort and are easy to launder.
- Repurpose an unnecessary bedroom as a home office.
- Outfit a double closet to house office clutter.
- Install vinyl wallcoverings to mimic grasscloth for an easy-care alternative to the real thing.

DESIGN process

The owners of this bright and airy bungalow have a new beginning too, thanks to designer Julia Correia. Although this home is about the same size as the home they moved from, they wanted a more relaxed, less traditional space. They wanted this home to feel more like their oceanside property in Florida – relaxed and bright. Says Julia, “We share similar tastes, style and thought process.”

ADD PERSONALITY

- White cabinets are a perennial favourite and have lasting appeal.
- Install marble backsplash tile with a curved silhouette to soften the hard lines in a kitchen.
- Indulge your favourite colour and repeat it throughout the home in various tints and shades.
- Surround yourself with the things you love and take the time to find them.
- Layer classic décor items from your favourite local shops.
- Hang amazing large-scale art that speaks to you. Continued on page 58

MAKE IT PRETTY

- Add wainscotting for architectural interest.
- Use wallpaper to inject colour and drama and to stand in as artwork.
- Use plumbing and cabinet hardware with style and classic details.
- Add jute area rugs and textured baskets to create a casual warmth.
- Hang unique artwork that reinforces the room's theme.
- Display fresh flowers, branches and indoor plants for an organic touch.

The homeowners love their bright, pretty and relaxing home and tell Julia, "We wouldn't work with anyone else!" OH

SPARKLING LIGHTING TIPS for a Festive Holiday Season

STORY JENNIFER BACKSTEIN

The secret to every successful soiree is ambience, and designers know lighting is absolutely everything. This holiday season, most families are planning more intimate, smaller gatherings. Here are my favourite tips for hosting a simply sparkling and festive fête.

Layers of Light

Because night arrives more quickly in winter, your home's lighting plan is more important than ever. Set the stage for an elegant evening by illuminating the exterior walkway and your front door, and by highlighting all-season gardens and landscape features. There's nothing prettier than a winter-bare tree dressed in tiny glimmering lights.

Your interiors should include a balanced mix of ambient, task and accent lighting, which will add function and comfort to your space. Ambient lighting is the overall lighting in the room, and typically comes in the form of overhead lighting. Task lighting, as its name implies, is meant to illuminate tasks. At your party, this could be lamps lighting the hors d'oeuvres table or pendants above an improvised bar. Last but not least, accent lighting will illuminate special features, such as artwork or a great piece of furniture.

TIP: Illuminating key living areas in your home can subconsciously usher your guests to the party. Light up the refreshments area, bar, kitchen (if your guests are welcome there), guest bathroom and front entrance.

Fire It Up!

There's nothing quite like a flickering fireplace on a blustery day. The hearth is a natural gathering place. Historically, the fireplace was a hub for cooking, warmth and light. As its functional applications have waned over the years it's still a hot spot for entertaining. If you're having a small gathering, the fireplace should be the focal point. Style the fireplace mantel for the event with fresh greenery and a simple string of twinkling white lights and your favourite festive accessories. Or keep it simple and let the flame speak for itself.

If you don't have a fireplace and are considering installing one, consult a professional for advice on the best type of fireplace for your space. Wood-burning, gas, electric – each has its own unique benefits.

For instant evening glow, pick up a variety of jar candles, tea light candles and battery-operated mini lights to nestle in among tablescapes.

Light bulbs come in different colours and temperatures. Neutral bulbs are also called "bright white," which lands somewhere between warm yellow and cool blue, and is the preferred choice in living areas. You can instantly warm up your home by swapping out your bright whites with the slightly warmer "soft white" option.

Above all, invest in dimmers throughout the key areas of your home to control the level of light and mood within the space.

TIP: If you don't have a fireplace or just want to mimic this look for a party, the warm glow of a flickering flame can be achieved with candles and dimmer switches. Strategically placed mirrors will amplify the amount of light and visual warmth in the room.

While wintertime and holiday parties may look a little different this year, why not embrace them as they come and be thankful for what they are? Time spent with your near and dear ones, under the right light, is the most wonderful way to spend the festive season ahead. OH

BLEACHED PINE CONE garland

PROJECT AND PHOTOGRAPHY
TARA CHATTELL

THIS BLEACHED PINE CONE GARLAND IS EASY TO MAKE AND WILL ADD UNDERSTATED, NATURAL BEAUTY TO YOUR HOLIDAY DÉCOR.

TOOLS & MATERIALS

- Dry Pine Cones
- Long Rubber Gloves
- Safety Glasses
- Old Clothing
- Bleach
- Water
- Bucket
- Large Plate (no longer used for food)
- Scissors
- Jute Twine

BLEACH PINE CONES

1 In a well-ventilated space, preferably outside, don your old clothing, rubber gloves and safety glasses.

2 Add dry pine cones to a bucket. Fill the bucket, one third from the top, with one part water and two parts bleach.

3 Carefully place a plate over the pine cones, pushing down gently, to keep them submerged in the solution. Put the bucket in a safe place, out of reach of children and pets, for 24-72 hours. Check your pine cones every 24 hours and leave longer if needed, up to 72 hours. Pine cones will appear lighter in colour when they are ready to remove from the bleach solution.

4 Carefully remove the pine cones from the bleach solution and place them outdoors to dry, on a surface that won't be damaged by the bleach. The pine cones will close while sitting in the bleach solution; once they have fully dried and reopened, they're ready to use for crafting.

ASSEMBLE GARLAND

5 Cut a long piece of jute twine, a few inches longer than you'd like your final garland to be.

6 Begin by tying a loop at one end of your twine.

7 A few inches down from the loop, attach the first pine cone by wrapping the twine around the top of the pine cone and knotting.

8 Continue attaching pine cones, evenly spaced along the twine, until you near the other end.

9 Finish the end by tying another loop. The loops can be used for hanging your finished garland.

Use your finished garland to decorate your tree, mantel, buffet or stair railing. Happy holidays! OH

How COVID-19 is

IMPACTING HOME DESIGN

STORY CONNIE JESKE CRANE

When COVID-19 hit, our homes, essentially overnight, were asked to function in ways they'd never had to before. On a purely practical level, for homeowners, all those hours we've spent at home – in Zoom meetings, coaxing sourdough starter, agonizing over math homework, gathering for family movie nights – have given us an unprecedented chance to take stock. What works well here? What room drives me crazy? What's tired or just not working?

After speaking with Ontario homeowners, it's clear many of us have moved beyond the "thinking about it" stage to making it happen. "I have never been this busy!" says Rob Abbott of Great Lakes Custom Homes. Based in Craileith, Abbott says he's seeing brisk demand and a flurry of pandemic-inspired requests from homeowners for quotes on renovations and builds.

In the Ottawa area, Ryan Blackwell of Blackwell Renovations has experienced a similar rush. "It's kind of crazy. This year the amount of estimates that I'm doing has spiked."

From a real estate perspective, whether you plan to buy or sell in the near future, or simply want to enjoy your home while building equity, it's important to understand how much homeowner priorities have shifted during the pandemic.

With that thought in mind, we asked Rob Abbott (whose client projects are rural) and Blackwell (whose work is more urban-focused) how this great period of global unease is impacting home design. Here are several trends they noted:

ENHANCED HOME OFFICES

Not surprisingly, with many workers today still mandated to work from home, builders see big and likely lasting impact here. Ryan Blackwell says he's had multiple quote requests recently for home offices in and around Ottawa, adding, "That's not usually a focal point."

In Craileith, Rob Abbott is also fielding quotes for home offices. He says the all-important twist today is that clients want such spaces designed for much more dedicated use. "People now don't just want just a flex space for their office, they want somewhere where, when they shut the door, they don't hear anybody."

GENERAL UPDATING

Offices aside, Ryan Blackwell says the pandemic isn't fuelling one particular type of job request. What he sees instead is an overall reprioritization. "I think the common trend is that people are living in it and they realize now that they're sick of it. They see their space all the time. Their kitchen is drab and they've been wanting to do it for a while. It's just they're taking the opportunity now."

OUTDOOR STRUCTURES

Beyond their so-familiar four walls, Rob Abbott also sees clients casting a critical gaze to their outdoor spaces. From screened-in porches and sunrooms, to decks, pavilions, cabanas and gazebos, he says clients are keen to expand their outdoor entertainment areas, nudge their kids away from screens and encourage fresh-air family fun. "People are building outdoors like crazy."

SEPARATE LIVING QUARTERS

In his urban setting, Ryan Blackwell says he's also seen more homeowners make sizable investments to carve out apartments either in their home's basement or attic space, generally to provide a source of supplementary income. "Our market has stayed pretty strong, and people have noticed that, so they're not as scared to pull the equity or reinvest," he says.

UPGRADING RECREATIONAL PROPERTY

By contrast, in the country, Rob Abbott says since the pandemic he's noticed far more city dwellers on the hunt for rural properties. As for those who already own recreational properties outside the city, he says many are renovating big time. "Some are now at the precipice of deciding, 'Do I ever go back to the office or do I just stay at my 4,000 square-foot chalet and never go back to Toronto?'" With families hunkering down in their chalets and cottages, Rob Abbott says he's gotten requests for everything from enclosing kids' loft spaces and redoing bedrooms and basements to adding bathrooms and building pricey multi-storey additions. "People are spending so much time up here, they're now wanting to update or finish spaces in the home that they never bothered to do before." OH

THE PLACE

Choosing flooring for your new home or renovation is one of the most important decisions you'll make. Flooring anchors your space and sets the tone for every room. Cover-Ups Carpet & Flooring offers a huge selection of hardwood, vinyl luxury floors, engineered vinyl flooring and carpet choices. An eclectic mix of ceramic tiles and the best of Para Paints make this a one-stop shop for your flooring and decorating needs.

CONSULTATION

"Our approach is consultative," says co-owner Caroline Paquet. "Our customer service staff ask questions about your lifestyle: Do you have pets and children? Do you walk in the house with your shoes on? Where are the high-traffic areas? You'll be guided to the area of the store where the materials will suit your unique project. Browse to get a feel for the fit with your style and colour preference, and the team will tailor samples to your unique project, style and budget."

TRENDS

Here's Caroline's take on what's new and on trend this season:

- Extra-large porcelain tiles for shower walls – for a grand effect and ease of cleaning.
- Handmade-style tiles with irregular shapes and textures or worn-looking edges.
- Curbless showers: Almost every new bathroom we do has one.
- Natural wood colours – light to medium tones. It's more European.
- Sisal and wool rugs make a comeback.
- Geometric patterns on everything.
- Greys are out. Light, warm tones are in – beige, peach, aqua and green.

HISTORY

Cover-Ups Carpet & Flooring opened its doors in 1992 in Arthur. In 2010, Cover-Ups was taken over by Gord Blyth and Caroline Paquet, a husband-and-wife team, who have since opened an additional store in Fergus. Gord is a master installer and Caroline was an industrial designer working for a commercial retail design company. Their combined skill set, keen sense of style and insistence on extraordinary customer service has them marking their 10th anniversary this November.

Woodland WONDERLAND

STORY MERRILYN PATTERSON | PHOTOGRAPHY JASON HARTOG

It's Christmas at the Bellamy house. Josh Bellamy of Bellamy Homes opened his home to the Lakeside HOPE House Christmas JOY Home Tour in Guelph. When tour co-chair Jenny Hilborn, Owner and Principal Designer of Centre Staged Designs, saw the home, she instantly chose to decorate it herself. The home was a huge hit on last year's tour.

THE WOODLAND SETTING and aesthetics of the Bellamy's family home complemented Jenny's own decorating style. "You use what you have and highlight it and let the raw textures shine through."

In designing his open-plan family home, Josh repurposed reclaimed wooden beams to create accent pieces, adding warmth and texture to the contemporary space. A rustic wood fireplace, tables and sliding barn doors bring the woodland story happening outside, inside.

Woodland Wonderland was the obvious choice for Jenny's holiday decorating theme.

Jenny used the home's raw, natural elements to let the natural setting speak for itself. Jenny says the most elegant way to decorate the space was "with woods, greenery, candles and soft neutral fabrics." In the open-concept great room she tailored neutral colours to original pieces. In the master bedroom she selected white accents,

In the master en suite, Jenna Bellamy's favourite room, a simple vase of magnolias was placed on the vanity – the green and brown tones representative of the whole theme.

The dining table is decorated with greenery, garlands and magnolia in rattan vases, lanterns and finished with a sprig of cedar added to each plate. White-washed birch chargers and fur-topped benches complete the cosy, rustic look.

The tree in the great room is a showstopper. Jenny and her team spent hours decorating it to perfection. All of the elements used in decorating the home are represented on the tree.

Ode to Christmas

STORY CHERYL LONG | PHOTOGRAPHY JASON HARTOG

This holiday home theme is Classic Christmas, but Gary adds a twist on traditional red accents with a touch of purple. OPPOSITE: A sparkling chandelier swagged with red berries and an artful evergreen centerpiece in the dining area set the stage for Gary's holiday cocktail party.

The open-concept living room exudes quiet elegance with neutral colour choices for furniture and blends with Gary's panache for mixing modern styles with traditional. BELOW: Always a masterpiece, the tree sparkles with red, gold and purple ornaments. Wee golden birds perch cheerfully on evergreen branches.

The addition of the island, storage and coffee nook give Gary a sleek, functional space to prepare nibbles and drinks for holiday guests. BELOW LEFT: Gary's curio cabinet is filled with treasures collected over a lifetime. BELOW: Gary plans projects in his light-filled home office.

SINCE HE WAS A YOUNG MAN IN HIS 20s, Gary Bennett has been setting aside the first Sunday in December to transform his living space into a carefully crafted ode to Christmas. Once the décor was in place and the tree was up – themed a little differently each year – the season would officially kick off that day with the first of his well-attended cocktail parties. These days the parties are a little more subdued, but the holiday decorating is just as ambitious as Gary thoughtfully displays the collectibles he's amassed over the years in his recently renovated townhouse condominium in Cambridge. After a move from Peterborough in March 2018 and a lengthy search, Gary found the property and immediately envisioned the changes that would make it feel like home. "The first time I walked in I said, 'I love this space, I can hardly wait to renovate it because it's so dark and dreary,'" he says, smiling. Though it checked off much of his wishlist, including a two-car garage, three full bathrooms and a private deck backing on to conservation space, the wallpaper and dark oak kitchen weren't to his taste. "It was ready for a little bit of a kick," he explains. "I kicked it into the 21st century."

As a retired IT project manager with previous home renovations under his belt, Gary was comfortable acting as designer and then hiring and managing the trades who would update his new home. That included a kitchen redesign by Renown Cabinet Systems Inc., who also did the remaining installations in each room. They added an island, additional storage space and a coffee nook in the kitchen and updated the bathrooms with selections from EVON Bathroom & Kitchen Gallery. New carpets from Sarmazian Brothers Flooring, upgraded light fixtures from The Lighting Shoppe and fresh paint helped to brighten the interior.

“I call myself quietly elegant. I mix traditional furniture with modern,” Gary explains, pointing out the curio cabinet filled with a treasure trove of pieces he’s gathered over the years. “I just like being surrounded by beautiful things.”

The artfully decorated tree, shimmering with white lights and glass ornaments in shades of red and purple, is the focal point in his favourite space. The living room has been intentionally arranged to encourage conversation with cushion-strewn sofas facing each other alongside the gas fireplace. Garland adorns the mantel and festive planters peek inside from the back patio.

Once the day-long transformation is complete, it’s time to kick off another Christmas season. Though his new home, like his gatherings, is a little smaller in size, Gary is enjoying the open-concept space that allows him to play host and join the conversation at the same time.

“This is the right size for this time of my life,” Gary says. “It’s cosy and it’s comfortable and I feel at home.” OH

REINVENT your space

THE PLACE

N-Hance Wood Finishing owners Al and Barb Vodicka have been bringing new life to kitchens for more than 15 years. First, as kitchen refinishing and refacing company Spray It!, and then as Coat of Many Colours Quality Kitchens Inc. In March 2020, the couple merged their business into three franchises: N-Hance Waterloo, Kitchener and Guelph, serving the Tri-Cities and surrounding areas.

SERVICES

The new franchises still refinish and reface, but now offer wood refinishing including floors and railings, as well as granite countertop renewal. "N-Hance has its own exclusive products that are used only by the franchisees," says Al. "Floor and kitchen stains are top-quality and our kitchen solid colours are not paint but rather a polyurethane acrylic blend product, which is very durable. They are amazing products to work with."

TRENDING

When it comes to cabinet colour trends, Barb says solid white kitchens with a clean and bright look have been extremely popular, but there's been a recent trend toward darker colours (such as espresso), blues and some greys. "More customers have also been asking to have upper and lower cabinets painted in two different colours," Barb says.

N-Hance uses Benjamin Moore colours and the most popular cabinet paint shades are:

Ultra White
CC-10

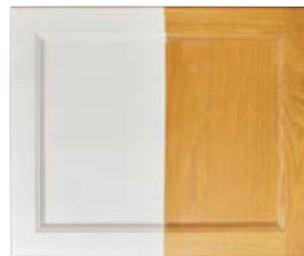

Cement Gray
2112-60

Oxford White
CC-30

Hale Navy
HC-154

THE PROCESS

Innovative and affordable, the N-Hance process for getting kitchen cabinets refinished starts with N-Hance removing your cabinet and door fronts and bringing them back to the shop where they clean, sand, prime and apply a spray finish coat to each piece. "About a week later we return to tape and prep your cabinets on-site in one day, and then the next day the cabinet shell is sprayed," says Al. "The day after that we put the doors back on, and in three days everything is fully cured. The result is durable, washable and has that fresh-from-the-factory look."

WHAT'S NEW

The Vodickas' new franchises are booming and servicing an increase in new customers. "Since March we have hired five employees, purchased two company vans and my new full-time job is managing the office, which includes answering inquiries, booking appointments for quotes, booking jobs and more – which I enjoy very much," says Barb.

BEST PART OF THE BUSINESS

"Seeing our motto 'Love your kitchen (and now your floors) all over again' come to life in our clients' faces when they see the transformation," says Al. "It's so gratifying to see them happy with the job we've done. The greatest compliment is when they refer us to their family and friends."

There's cost, quality of materials, whether or not you'll be displaced or have to share your space with contractors for an extended period of time, and are those contractors going to be cutting corners? ### ENDEMAN'S IRONCRAFT

A business has moved to Orangeville, and the sparks are flying! Endeman's Ironcraft has found a new home base at 23 Commerce Rd, but while its location has changed, they still offer the same great services and client care.

Over 40 years ago, founder Harold John Endeman set up Endeman's with the goal of helping customers by building what they needed even if the job was laborious or complex. Now owned by his son and grandson, Albert and Wade Endeman are proud of the niche market they have developed that extends beyond the local community.

Gates and spiral stairs are just a small portion of the specialty items Endeman's has garnered a reputation for producing.

With many years making customer service a top priority, clients as far away as Huntsville, Peterborough, and Ottawa have to sought out their services, knowing they will deliver what they need.

To meet the needs and desired look of designers and clients, they have fabricated a variety of one-of-a-kind pieces, such as a raw iron-clad fireplace, a 14-foot-tall driveway gate, and even a 42-foot-tall spiral stair.

CLASSIC & timeless

STORY JANET WHITE BARDWELL | PHOTOGRAPHY JASON HARTOG

When Waterloo homeowners decided to embark on an extensive main floor reno of their two-storey home in the city's picturesque Beechwood West District, they knew it was crucial to assemble a stellar team to make their dream a reality. Continued on page 120

This classic white kitchen has ample storage and a large island warmed by natural wood casings. A breakfast nook with a window bench offers a cosy spot for morning nibbles and late-night coffee.

Blonde matte wide-plank oak flooring warms the kitchen's white-on-white palette.

Designer Suzanne Tait

THEIR FIRST CALL WAS TO Suzanne Tait, owner of Suzanne Tait Design. Suzanne – a 20-plus year veteran in residential design – and her team have worked on two homes with the homeowners over the last 10 years. During this time Suzanne has earned their respect for her design skills and professionalism, and they consider her a friend. Since the family moved to the home in 2015, Suzanne has helped them renovate the upper level and family room. The homeowners say of their relationship: “Suzanne knows our likes and dislikes. Hiring a design consultant who is passionate about what they do and is an expert in their field is a tremendous benefit.”

The main floor reno, however, was the couple’s most ambitious project and required an extensive team working cohesively together to bring their dream reno to life.

With the goal of making better use of the square footage and opening up the kitchen and family room area, the plan required structural changes. Two supporting walls would be moved, the layout reconfigured to bring the dining room from the back to the front, and a butler’s pantry placed neatly off the kitchen. Continued on page 122

“HAVING THIS CLOSE BY FOR EXTRA STORAGE OPENED UP SPACE IN THE KITCHEN TO ADD FEATURE PIECES SUCH AS A CUSTOM HOOD FAN, WALL SCONCES AND BUILT-IN COFFEE MAKER.” – Suzanne Tait

Adding to the challenge, the homeowners are working professionals with two busy children and an enthusiastic furry family member named Poppy. These realities demanded that the reno be functional, comfortable and durable as well.

The couple met with a few general contractors and made a decision to commission Murray and Pat Horst at Revive-a-House to oversee the renovation. Next, Homestead Woodworks, Rich-Craft Interiors, Stonex Granite and Quartz, and Watermarks Kitchen & Bath Boutique were brought on board, and the core dream team was complete. The couple was grateful to have Suzanne keeping watch. “She worked so well with everyone. Having her at all the meetings ensured that no design aspect was overlooked.”

To keep their sanity while the team worked its magic, the homeowners moved into a nearby Airbnb for nine weeks – a move they highly recommend.

The result was worth the wait. The entrance now opens to a space filled with light. Blonde, matte, wide-plank oak flooring

The family room, open to the kitchen, exudes comfortable elegance.

In an earlier reno, Suzanne designed the master en suite with a timeless white theme, setting the stage for phase two on the ground floor. TOP RIGHT: A curbless glass shower completes the glitzy feel to the master en suite. RIGHT: A sparkling crystal chandelier and inviting soaker tub add glamour to the en suite.

A dark blue feature wall in the master bedroom is reminiscent of a deep blue sea.

throughout from Rich-Craft Interiors provides a warm foundation that will withstand the wear and tear of this busy family. “Blonde oaks are also particularly forgiving with pets,” advises Suzanne.

The dining room to the right of the front entrance is framed with wall-to-wall built-ins by Homestead Woodworks, and original art from Paula White Diamond Art Gallery + Design Studio adds a contemporary edge. Sconces and a statement chandelier from Living Lighting complement the room’s comfortable formality.

To the left of the entrance is a space transformed from a non-descript garage entry into a charming mudroom and laundry area. Cubbies for each family member, washer/dryer from TA Appliances ensconced by built-ins from Homestead Woodworks, and a clothes dryer wall inset fulfill Suzanne’s goal of making the home liveable and functional.

Toward the back of the house, the open hallway flows seamlessly into a stunning kitchen and family room area. Generous white walls offer a gallery-style backdrop for more unique fine art from Paula White Diamond Art Gallery + Design Studio that add colour to the space. Continued on page 126

Showcased centre stage, a striking quartz island and comfy seating from Casalife Furniture lend themselves as perfectly to family dinners and homework as to a long-overdue catch-up with friends. A nearby banquette awaits a morning repose with a warm beverage.

The island and countertops from Stonex Granite and Quartz are accented by pristine white cabinetry and brushed chrome fixtures by Homestead Woodworks. A corner ceramic farmhouse-style sink and plumbing by Watermarks Kitchen & Bath Boutique, and a variation of the classic subway tile backsplash, exude durable, timeless chic.

The butler's pantry area (Suzanne's favourite part of the reno) features antique leathered granite countertops and walk-in pantry with a barn-style sliding door. "Having this close by for extra storage opened up space in the kitchen to add feature pieces such as a custom hood fan, wall sconces and a built-in coffee maker," she says.

The second level stars Suzanne's earlier work with the family. The main bath calls upon a timeless New York retro style with double vanity and walk-in shower for the kids to have a space to call their own.

Suzanne describes the first room she designed for the couple's daughter as a "sweet little girl's room." Now a teenager, she shared her ideas with Suzanne to create a bedroom with touches of lush texture and pretty details.

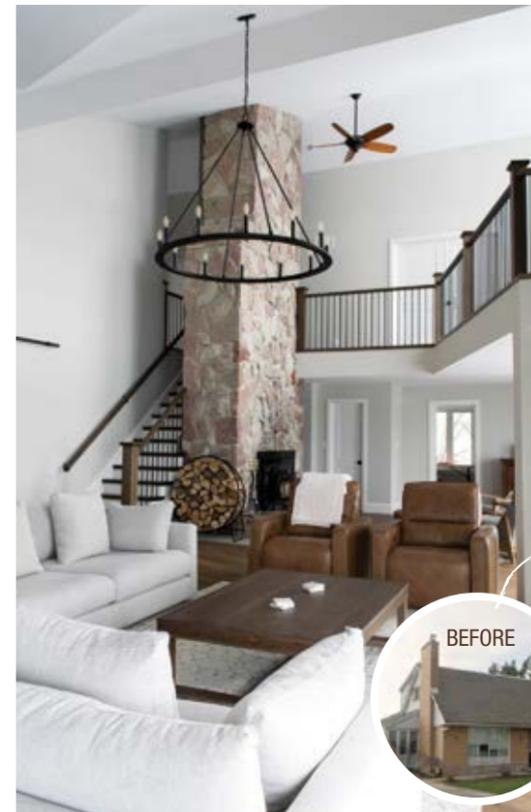

The master suite is comfortable yet traditional, while the en suite opts for Old Hollywood appeal, complete with a freestanding tub, shimmering chandelier and a curbless shower and hidden drain. The marble countertop from Natural Stone City, mirror-mounted sconces and polished nickel fixtures add warmth to this private retreat.

The family moved back in shortly before the COVID-19 lockdown, as the house quickly became home, office and school – and they couldn't be happier with both their new surroundings and the team that made it happen. "Our contractors listened to our vision. Revive a House and Homestead Woodworks were fantastic to deal with. Suzanne and her team took away a lot of stress and helped make the rooms comfortable and functional yet classic and timeless." OH

⌘ DOUBLE WEDDING RING

This quilt symbolizes the circle of love and the connection between an inspirational grandmother, her family and friends and the love, dedication and passion put into everything she did.

In 2001, Donna Sue Groves, a contemporary quilter from Adams County, Ohio, created a large painted quilt square to honour her mother. An admirer of quilts and old barns, Donna Sue displayed the square on her property for passersby to admire. The project quickly expanded to include 20 painted sampler quilt squares on barns around the county, encouraging visitors to drive through the countryside and discover Donna Sue's community. Her vision for a barn quilt trail has spread throughout the United States and Canada, with more than 7,000 quilt blocks now on display. Quilt blocks are now popping up on barns across Ontario, telling stories of local history, tourism, agriculture, family traditions and heritage. Grey County has joined the movement with the For The Love of Grey Barn Quilt Trail.

⌘ UNITED

The owners of this farm researched its history and discovered it was settled by an Irish immigrant who purchased 100 acres of Crown land. Because one of the present owners is of Scottish ancestry, the thistle was chosen as a link between the start of the farm, present day and thistles on the property. The head of the flower is in the shape of a crown, representing Crown land, and the colours came from the husband's kilt.

⌘ THE BIRD

A celebration of a mother's love of Barred Rock chickens and a special pet hen named Salt and Pepper – all cherished memories for her daughter.

⌘ CALEDONIA COW

Wiley represents the happy dairy cows that reside in this recently restored barn. The two Irish shamrocks represent the farm's first owner, who emigrated from Northern Ireland. The current family's Scottish roots are represented by the Scottish Thistles.

« CAMPBELL'S CELTIC KNOT

The infinity (or Celtic) knot was chosen to represent the endless intertwining and looping of family and farming. The colours of red, black and white represent love, life, passion, purity, fertility, Holstein cows and Canada.

≈ BELL'S OAK TREE

Just after the marriage of the owners, a large pine tree by the house was struck by lightning. That tree was replaced with an oak, which was chosen because of its deep roots. The barn on this property was raised in 1882.

≈ STARBURST

A quilter and her family moved to the farm where her husband was raised. The bright colours make this quilt a focal point for everyone who drives by or visits their farm.

≈ THE FAMILY TREE

The apple tree on this quilt pays homage to the orchard on this land, in operation for almost a century. Ten apples on the tree represent parents, children and grandchildren, and four apples in the bucket are in memory of family members who have passed. The friendship of family and friends is symbolized by the border of friendship stars.

≈ PARKIN'S TWISTED STAR

A dairy operation for three generations, the farm turned to cash crops in 2012. The design of the quilt reflects this new direction: The twisted star with a cob of corn signifies the main crop, and the intertwined star and square signifies closeness of family. OH

≈ TULLOCH'S TARTAN STAR

The eight-pointed star on this quilt is divided into four sections, each representing a generation beneath the family's patriarch, who arrived from Scotland at the age of 17. The Tulloch tartan was also incorporated into this design.

≈ GRANDMOTHER'S GARDEN

A granddaughter remembers the quilt frame set up in her grandma's dining room and the quilting bees that took place as she played under foot. Although she never had the privilege to quilt with her grandmother, she did take up quilting after her grandmother's passing. The multi-generational love of quilting is now being passed to her own granddaughters.

» MAPLES AND MASSEYS

A maple bush at the back of the family farm is reflected in this quilt, which hangs on a barn raised in 1895. Maple leaves surround the symbol for the tractor brand Massey Ferguson, formerly Massey-Harris. The owner's father owned a Massey-Harris 30 in 1953, and Massey Ferguson equipment remains the brand of choice on this farm.

PREPARING INDOOR SPACES FOR RECHARGING AND FUN

For many of us, the end of warm weather this year carries some extra wistfulness. Given the rollercoaster times, and with many of us still working from home and/or sheltering extra family members, saying goodbye to sunny outdoor spaces and heading inside is legitimately more daunting.

From an interior design perspective, it makes paying attention to our indoor spaces more crucial than ever. Leanne Mosquite of Leanne Mosquite Design in Beamsville frames the goal for our spaces this way: “Now everyone is going to come back indoors. And it’s going to be just that idea of being comfortable and also an area where you feel safe and you can relax and de-stress, because I find these times are adding stress to people. So it’s about creating that sanctuary within the home.”

So how to get there? Here are key considerations as we find ourselves settling back indoors.

SPACE TO GATHER AND RETREAT

Leanne says the best designs today involve balance – where we create spaces for both gathering and retreat in our dwellings. Since the pandemic struck, she says, “There seems to be more people in the space. And it’s not just on the weekend or on a holiday, it’s every day. So it’s about creating areas within that same footprint of the house where you can all be together comfortably. So if you’re watching a movie, everybody is comfortable. It’s not ‘Last man in has the worst seat in the house.’”

On the flip side, Leanne advises homeowners to think about creating retreat spaces, as well. Whether your family members recharge over foosball and gaming, pumping iron or a cosy fireside glass of pinot, Leanne advises some effort here. “Create zones where, if you need to go and read a book quietly away from the chaos, there are designated spaces for these activities. Be mindful of making those secondary areas just as comfortable.”

SOFTNESS

While open-concept areas are wonderful for gathering, with more bodies at home, Leanne says noise and echo have emerged as more pressing issues. This may be felt most keenly in newer homes, she says, where homeowners sometimes have gone “all in on the build but haven’t followed through on the furnishing end yet.”

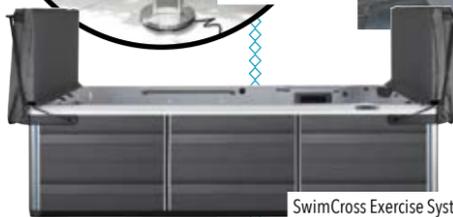

Solutions, says Leanne, are relatively easy to achieve via some carefully thought-out purchases. She recommends considering foot traffic, product quality and durability of materials before you invest. Beyond that, “It’s about soft furnishings – area rugs, window treatments, drapery panels – adding a dampening layer so when there are six to eight people in the space the sound doesn’t reverberate.”

PATIENCE

Finally, while not strictly design advice, industry players all stress the need to fold some patience into our plans right now. On the retail side, Courtney says with hot-ticket items like pools, hot tubs and swim spas, supply has been an issue owing to both incredible consumer demand and to manufacturer delays, so plan ahead.

Overall, Leanne recommends a twofold approach – looking at what you can do now in terms of short-term updates, and then adding some patience and longer timelines around larger projects like renovations. Builders and contractors, she says, are busier than ever. “We’re finding that in these times the building industry has not stopped; it is still swamped. Everyone is still really busy.” OH

Shop here for fabulous furniture and decor on consignment

Just over 11 years ago, devotees of shopping on Ottawa Street in Hamilton, an area that was undergoing a regeneration, heard news of a new retail outlet opening in a former flooring store. Soon, the first Millionaire’s Daughter consignment store, specializing in mid-to-high end furniture and décor, became a reality, with curious customers visiting to find out what services were available, the origin of the name, and to meet the person behind this exciting retail concept.

The name, “The Millionaire’s Daughter” pays homage to the businesses owned and run by Maureen’s parents and family, “The Millionaire Drive-ins”, with their towering neon signs that featured a tuxedoed waiter holding a burger in one hand and a frothy mug of root beer in the other.

When asked recently what prompted the idea of starting a consignment business, Maureen Barnes, the business owner and operator, replied that she had always loved having her own business in the Beaches for 6 years while her kids were young but, later, when travelling for another company and visiting her sister in Calgary, she went to see a consignment store and fell in love with the idea of reused furniture and, most importantly, making everything look beautiful. Since inception and over 11 years, Maureen has built her business from 1 store to 4, expanding to Oakville, Aurora and Kitchener. While maintaining her personal ideals to “work hard”, “treat others kindly” and “love what you do”, she has continued to innovate and provide services that customers and consignors are requesting, as well as stay abreast of the changes in technology and shopping styles and trends.

Whether you’re downsizing, renovating, moving, or just looking to change your interior décor, buying and selling on consignment makes perfect sense! The business goal is to carry a wide variety of furniture pieces and accessories at various price points for the shopping pleasure of any customer. With over 30,000 square feet combined, our expansive showrooms display one-of-a-kind pieces in unique vignettes that are constantly changing. Here you’ll find a fabulous mix of modern and vintage treasures, stunning china, and quality, affordable furniture. Maureen’s favourite saying, “Everything here has its own little story that has been gathered through the years”, exemplifies the heart of the business and Maureen’s life. — Margaret Gregory
