

people EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

BY MANDY MARTIN
PHOTOGRAPHY BY DAVE POWERS

Décor defines spaces, places and personalities. Draw inspiration from these talented connoisseurs. They are always on the lookout for just the right accent, the right accessory to let your personal interpretation shine. Expect the unexpected.

The Old Tin Shed, Bancroft
From its opening in May 2003, The Old Tin Shed has prided itself on being original, one-of-a-kind, and in touch with the needs of faithful customers. Now a destination, this award-winning business is focused on customer service excellence and product selection. Located on Hwy. 28 in downtown Bancroft, The Old Tin Shed provides home décor for almost every style, with a focus on primitive, country and cottage. Treat yourself to the “experience” of The Old Tin Shed. It’s well worth the drive!

◀ Catherine Moore

Bridget Anastasia's Gifts & Home Décor, Cavan

Known for her discerning eye, Catherine Moore delights in sharing her finds from around the world with customers "who come from near and far." There's a terrific selection of home furnishings, unique lighting, gift and décor items, scarves, Mary Francis handbags, jewelry, one-of-a-kind works by a variety of local artisans, glassware, crystal, children's toys, pottery and collectibles. It's a shopper's cornucopia that changes with every season. Each item leaves her store in her signature white bag and red ribbon. Open Wednesday through Sunday, or by appointment for private group showings and shopping.

Cheeky Bee Candle Company & Gallery, Warkworth

Hand-making 100 per cent pure beeswax candles since 2000, the Cheeky Bee Candle Company owners realized their dream of living the rural lifestyle with a move to the charming village of Warkworth in 2005. Today, their candles are sold across North America, Europe and Japan. The business has expanded to include one of the region's most unique shopping destinations, Cheeky Bee Gallery, featuring handmade fine craft, original art, wood furniture and an extensive selection of gifts from across North America. Visit their gallery on Main Street.
